

- 1) Rawl Davis Cafe - Built in 1909 by Rawl Davis. Over the years this has been a cafe, store, butcher shop and barber shop. The back part of this building was used for living quarters. This business changed hands many times. The cistern and an old fence still remain.
- 2) Albert Brandley Home - Built in 1903. The original home was made from granaries. Over the years additions have been made. The garage and barn were built in 1919 by Albert Brandley. There is still an irrigation ditch 2 cisterns and fences on this property.
- 3) Theodore Brandley Property - The first home in Stirling was situated on this property and was built by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in 1899 for $165.00. The present owner used the wood to build a shed. The rocks in the garden are the foundation from the original home. Theodore ran the first store and post office from a tent till his home was built. There are fences, a cistern and signs of an irrigation ditch still present.
- 4) George Oler Property - This is the spot where George Olers house was located. Mr Oler was one of the main carpenters in Stirling. He built and ran the Post Office from here. He took over this from Theodore Brandley.
- 5) Jesses Hardy Store - All that remains is the foundation. This store operated from 1900 - 1951 and changed names and owners a number of times. There was also a drug store, telephone office, garage, blacksmith and lumber-yard on this block.
